RFP Amendment No. 1

September 6, 2024

Please be advised that the Request for Proposals (RFP) and accompanying Proposal Guide, which originally required the submission of a Certificate of Liability Insurance with the application, have been amended as detailed below. Additionally, the online Neighborly Application has been updated to reflect this amendment.

3.10 Proof of Certification of Liability Insurance

The Proposer shall provide a Certificate of Liability Insurance (General Liability coverage of $1 million and $50,000 for each occurrence) to the County which expressly states that the County of Hawai'i is an additional insured prior to receiving payment(s). Said Certificate will be submitted following award notifications.

This amendment affects the following sections of the RFP:
